President's Message

Dear Fellow Members and Friends,

This has been such an exciting year and I am truly enjoying my increased involvement in the Society. Please take a few moments to stop over at the JCC and see our Society window in the hallway leading to the health club. There are a number of wonderful events coming this spring. Please support our lawyer's program in May, which launches our newest historical journal and honors the Hartford area legal profession, and is also a major fundraiser for the Society. Don't miss the Bat Mitzvah exhibit and the programs that are being held in conjunction with it. Also, this June, we are co-sponsoring (with the Jewish Federation of Greater Hartford) a Jewish Heritage trip to Philadelphia which should be both educational and inspirational.

There are also ongoing projects which are very exciting, such as the Community Outreach Initiative. Our long term goal is to assist every community institution and organization in maintaining and preserving their own historical materials, while they share their materials for our archives. We've always known how important this is, but it was further highlighted recently when both The Emanuel Synagogue and the Mandell JCC did research in the archive to find photos and documents for their upcoming anniversary celebrations.

I was amazed to learn how much work goes on behind the scenes. Trips, programs and exhibits must be planned months, sometimes years in advance, and we work hard to collaborate as much as possible with other organizations so that we reach the widest possible audience. We respond to numerous research requests from students, scholars, and filmmakers but we never lose sight of our most vital mission — collecting, preserving and disseminating the history of Hartford's Jewish community. Make sure you check out our website which has received rave reviews!

I am delighted to welcome our newest members and invite all of you to participate in the many activities that the Society offers. Please share this newsletter with family and friends who may not yet be members, and let them know what they are missing!

With best wishes for a wonderful Pesach.

Louise

BAT MITZVAH COMES OF AGE

A TOURING EXHIBITION PRESENTED BY THE NATIONAL MUSEUM OF AMERICAN JEWISH HISTORY AND MOVING TRADITIONS

Bat Mitzvah Comes of Age is a traveling exhibit from the National Museum of American Jewish History in Philadelphia, which shows how "bat mitzvah evolved from a radical innovation into a nearly universal American tradition." It is a fascinating example of Judaism's dynamism and ability to adapt to changing times and attitudes, while also exemplifying the continually evolving roles and responsibilities of women in cultural and religious life.*

This exhibit is co-sponsored by the Jewish Historical Society of Greater Hartford and the Mandell Jewish Community Center. For additional programming info: www.jhsg.org or 860-727-6170.

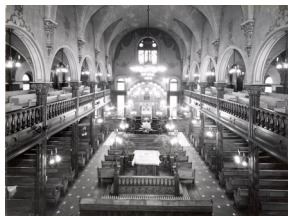

*The exhibit will move to the Gilman Theater lobby from April 29-May 25, 2014

There, you'll find photos and information about historic synagogues, religious leaders and communal life, as well as a timeline. There is also a listing of additional resources and present day synagogues. Developed by the Society's archivist, Greg Farr, it is a fascinating journey into Hartford's past.

A History of Jewish Hartford

with

Estelle Kafer, Betty Hoffman, Mary Donahue,
Avi Patt, moderator

Register for this course online at www.hartford.edu/presidentscollege

While the history of the Jewish presence in Hartford is as old as Hartford itself, it was in the mid-19th century that immigrant Jews began to arrive in significant numbers from Europe. Their influence on the industrial and retail history of the city grew as the city expanded. Synagogues were built, a sense of community was created, and small businesses flourished. A century later, many of Hartford's Jewish residents moved out of the city and into the suburbs, leaving behind them places that they had once lived in, the schools they had once attended, the places where they had once worshipped. This course will look back at that rich history. It will include a bus visit to the historic synagogues of Hartford, a visit to the archives of the Jewish Historical Society led by Estelle Kafer, and lectures on Jewish history by Betty Hoffman and Mary Donahue. This course will be moderated by Avi Patt.

200 Years Of
Jewish History

"BACK TO THE OLD NEIGHBORHOODS" BUS TOUR

The Society has scheduled a new spring date for its popular bus tour which travels through 200 years of Jewish history in three hours. Previous tours have been sold out, so book early for best availability. This year we are also offering the tours for synagogues and other organizations. Several congregations have already signed on to give their members this very special experience and we offer a discounted rate for groups of 30 or more. The next tour will take place on:

Sunday, April 27, 2013 at 9:30 a.m. and 1:30 p.m.

For more information, please call 860-727-6171 or go to our website at: www.jhsg.org The cost is $24/per person for members and $28/per person for non-members. You may also register at our website using your credit card.

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES

If you have some time to share, we have many interesting volunteer positions to be filled. These are just a few of the ways in which you can help the Society:

- ♦ Work on the wedding exhibit committee
- ♦ Transcribe oral histories
- ♦ Interview members of the community*
- ♦ Oral history database processing
- ♦ Acquisitions processing

*We are looking to increase our core group of interviewers so that we can continue to add to our oral history collection. Training will be provided by the Society. It's a wonderful chance to become acquainted with fascinating people and add their story to those already in the archives.

If you would like to assist in any way, please contact Bea at 860 727-6170.

THE COMMUNITY COLLECTIONS OUTREACH INITIATIVE

An ongoing mission of JHSGH, along with the preservation of its current collections, is to acquire materials to strengthen our holdings that illuminate the history of Jews in Greater Hartford. The Community Collections Outreach Initiative has emerged from that commitment, and a pilot version is now ready for implementation.

I am privileged to serve as coordinator for this project, and after two postponements due to snow, we look forward to meeting with synagogue representatives at our first Open House workshop on March 19, 2014. At this time, Estelle and archivist Greg Farr will introduce participants to the archives and discuss the vital part that synagogues play in collaborating with JHSGH to document and manage their own historical collection. To that end, a substantive packet of material will be offered to each participant that clearly addresses the framework for the involvement of JHSGH and the participating synagogues. In addition, a most helpful webpage of resource information has been created by our archivist to further guide participants in the collection process.

As the liaison, I will assist synagogue representatives in identifying material to be preserved and in developing a structured approach to storing documents that tell their synagogue's story. We are happy to note that the initial feedback has been positive, especially from synagogues that do not have a procedure in place for organizing important records.

As the initiative proceeds, the pilot phase will be refined and expanded. This is a most absorbing project on many levels and I am happy for my role in its implementation.

THE PRIME MINISTERS- THE PIONEERS

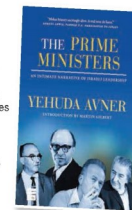

USA, 2013, 115 minutes, English and Hebrew with English subtitles
Director: Richard Trank

Sunday, March 30 - 4:00 PM
Digiplex Destinations, Bloomfield

Based on the best-selling memoir by Ambassador Yehuda Avner, who served as chief aide and speechwriter to many Israeli prime ministers, this sweeping docudrama is an insider's account of six decades of Israel's history. The film brings to life behind-the-scenes stories about Levi Eshkol, Golda Meir, Yitzhak Rabin, Menachem Begin, and Shimon Peres as well as United States Presidents Lyndon Johnson, Richard Nixon, Gerald Ford and Jimmy Carter. Henry Kissinger, Margaret Thatcher, Moshe Dayan, Harry Truman, Anwar Sadat and Princess Diana also appear.

The film reveals new details about the Six-Day War; Israel's strategic relationship with the U.S., the fight against terrorism, the Yom Kippur War and its aftermath. The first film in a two-part series, it stars the voices of major Hollywood actors Sandra Bullock (Meir), Michael Douglas (Rabin), Leonard Nimoy (Eshkol) and Christoph Waltz (Begin).

This film is sponsored by BNY Mellon Wealth Management; Jewish Community Relations Council; Jewish Federation of Greater Hartford and Jewish Historical Society of Greater Hartford; and Digiplex Destinations.

From the Director

Dear Friends,

By this time of the year, as we are all hoping warmer weather will arrive soon, the Society has been busy planning a number of exciting programs to enjoy this spring. An exhibit on loan from the Museum of American Jewish History, Bat Mitzvah Comes of Age, a historical narrative on this evolving Jewish American tradition, will be on view from April 7 through May 29. Our fifth scholarly journal entitled A Century of Jewish Law in Hartford will be presented at a important fundraising event at Tumblebrook Country Club on May 14. Please consider making a donation to honor a firm or lawyer and join us for this very special evening. In June our co-sponsored trip to Philadelphia will tour a number of impressive sites that I have visited - the amazing MAJH museum and three historic synagogues – sit back, relax and enjoy a weekend of Jewish culture and history!

You may be starting to hear about the community's collaborative Aim Chai Endowment Campaign. Community leaders and twenty-eight institutions have partnered to work together to raise the funds to ensure the future of Jewish Hartford. You will all have an opportunity to be part of supporting the Society's and community's long-term needs and collective vision for the future. Please contact me or Hollis Dorman at the Jewish Community Foundation for more details on making a personalized gift that is meaningful for you.

Last month, when news of our beloved Crown possibly closing shocked our community, the office received a number of phone calls and emails. We heard a communal concern to save the memorabilia and photographs and capture the memories of this 74 year old family business before it was too late. We are so fortunate that a dedicated group of community members saved the Crown, but we realize that the next generation's shopping experiences will be different than ours and our parents. The Society's commitment to preserve the past as an integral link to the future dictates us to once again collect and document the memories of this last prevailing landmark of the Old Neighborhood while we still have the storytellers amongst us. This summer, we will begin to collect stories, memorabilia and photographs of the Crown for a future project. We hope you will share your recollections with us! Please go to www.jhsg.org for more information.

Wishing everyone a joyous and delicious Passover holiday,

Estelle

From the Archivist

Dear Friends,

We are now preparing to work with synagogues throughout the Hartford area in an effort both to collect current archival materials and to assist these synagogues in preserving their own institutional archives. I am also pleased to report that over the past few months the JHSGH has also made great strides in providing public access to its oral history collection and has created a new in-house exhibit. This new and original exhibit, entitled Tikkun Olam in Our Community, highlights the achievements of individuals and organizations that have contributed to the Greater Hartford community through acts of social justice or philanthropy. It was created from documentation and original photographs found in our archive and also utilizes information available in our oral history collection. At present, over 500 oral histories in this collection of over 1400 cassette-taped interviews have been digitized for purposes of preservation, and a searchable finding aid of our oral history collection is now available online on the JHSGH website. Audio samples, and, in some instances, full transcripts of interviews are also available in these online finding aids.

We have had a number of genealogical inquiries over the past winter months and worked to verify historical facts for a national publishing company (Scholastic Books) and an up-coming photography exhibit developed by Trinity Professor, Pablo Delano, set to display at the CT Historical Society in October 2014. We have also received some interesting archival donations, including two scrapbooks from area synagogues, new publications from local authors pertaining to Jewish cemeteries in Hartford, and some fascinating historic photographs that have made a fine addition to our repository holdings on Jewish education. The JHSGH also received a significant donation of manuscript and related materials from a Chicago author who recently published a biographical work on the songwriter, composer, and artist Harold Rome. Mr. Rome, a Hartford native, became a well-known lyricist and writer for musical theater, finding success on Broadway and working with such professionals as Barbra Streisand, Alfred Hitchcock, and Hartford's own songstress and entertainer, Sophie Tucker. Please consider contributing your historical artifacts, manuscripts, and photographs to the JHSGH archival collection and many thanks again to all those who are participating in the life of the archives!

Wishing everyone many blessings for the upcoming holiday,

Greg
