In 1843, the Connecticut General Assembly permitted Jews the legal right to assemble for public worship and to incorporate their synagogues. Come celebrate the 175th anniversary of this milestone with us!

Our guest speaker is The Honorable Henry S. Cohn, Superior Court Judge in the New Britain District and a noted legal historian. Judge Cohn will speak on the rights of Jews in Connecticut from the state's founding to the passage of the 1843 statute giving Jews permission to form ecclesiastical societies.
