Back to the Old Neighborhoods

Travel Through 200 Years Of
Jewish History
In Hartford

This tour is sponsored by the JHSGH and funded in part by the Beatrice Fox Auerbach Fund/Koopman Share of the Jewish Community Foundation of Greater Hartford, the Connecticut Humanities Council, the Greater Hartford Arts Council and the State Historic Preservation Office.

We are grateful to Charter Oak Cultural Center, Faith Seventh-day Adventist Church and the Glory Chapel International Cathedral for their assistance with this project.

JEWISH HISTORICAL SOCIETY OF GREATER HARTFORD

Take a professionally guided bus tour through the city's neighborhoods as we follow in the footsteps of those who created this special community.

Be inspired by the lives of Hartford's Jewish immigrants and their stories of strength, perseverance, and resilience. Discover why they came to Hartford and how they made their way in the world.

• LEARN •

About the first Jew to arrive in Hartford in the 1600's and the challenges and changes faced by the growing Jewish population in the following decades.

• VISIT •

The first synagogue to be built in Connecticut, Congregation Beth Israel, and the landmark sites of the former Agudas Achim and The Emanuel Synagogue. See how these historic buildings continue to serve people today.

• VIEW •

The places where people worked, worshipped, shopped and played as they built lives for themselves and their families.

• HEAR •

About the community's accomplishments and contributions as we return to a special time and place.

Who We Are

The Jewish Historical Society of Greater Hartford, founded in 1971, is a non-profit beneficiary agency of the Jewish Federation of Greater Hartford.

The Society's primary focus is to collect, organize, preserve, publish and exhibit historical documents, photographs, memorabilia and oral histories as they relate to the Jewish community of Greater Hartford. JHSGH works with individuals, educational institutions and civic and social organizations to promote historical research and create awareness and understanding of the Jewish community's contributions to Greater Hartford. The Society's main commitment is to reach the largest audience through exhibitions, publications and educational programs.
